

CREATE presentations

- 27/10/17 Keynote paper, TDM Conference 2017, Taipei
'Shaping travel demand through land-use and transport policies: future directions'
- 11/10/17 SUMPS Co-ordinating Group Meeting, Brussels
'SUMP Concept: the need for an update; reflections from CREATE'
- 23/10/17 National University of Colombia, Bogota
'Mobility challenges in cities: Academic and practitioner responses'
- 06/11/17 PEP 2017 Symposium, UNECE and WHO, Geneva
'How transport can contribute to achieving green and healthy cities – making the journey'
- 05/12/17 Keynote paper, CIHT 'Making the Case for Transport', London
'Urban Transport: Growing recognition of its contribution to economy, society and well-being'
- 06/12/17 Keynote plenary paper: Annual POLIS Conference, Brussels
'Regulating Access to City Centres: The key to delivering future visions of city life'
- 14/12/17 Mayor of Greater Manchester (Presentation to the Congestion Expert Reference Group), Manchester:
'Shifting policy priorities and performance measures. Some evidence from the CREATE project'
- 04/01/18 UTSG Conference, London
'The interplay between urban transport policy and methodology: past, present and future'

Resulting award

HKU-UCL Strategic Partnership Fund award: 'The role of transport in transitioning to liveable and sustainable cities in Europe and China'.

£20,000 to organise an international symposium in Hong Kong (UCL inputs based around CREATE outputs) and a seminar in London, leading to a Memorandum of Understanding on future strategic research collaboration between the Institute of Transport Studies at Hong Kong University (HKU) and the Centre for Transport Studies at University College London (UCL).